

UNIVERSITY OF TRENTO

REGULATIONS OF THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Translation of the Regulations approved by the Board of the Department of Economics and Management, 13 April 2022

---

REGULATIONS OF THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

INDEX

Art. 1 – The Doctoral Programme .....	3
Art. 2 – Objectives and scope .....	3
Art. 3 – Language .....	3
Art. 4 – The Doctoral Programme Committee .....	3
Art. 5 – The Academic Director .....	4
Art. 6 – Tutors and supervisors .....	5
Art. 7 – Institutional training activities .....	5
Art. 8 – Study Programme .....	5
Art. 9 – Admission .....	5
Art. 10 – Admission to the second, third and fourth year and to the final exam .....	6
Art. 11 – Rights and duties of PhD students .....	6
Art. 12 – Award of the degree of PhD .....	7
Art. 13 – Amendments to the Regulations of the Doctoral .....	7
Art. 14 - Reference provisions .....	7

---

REGULATIONS OF THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Art. 1 – The Doctoral Programme

1. As per Article 8, paragraph 3, of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes, issued with Rector's Decree no. 250, 11 March 2022, to which we integrally refer, hereinafter referred to as "University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes"; and for the purpose of the affiliation of the Doctoral programme in Economics and Management - hereinafter referred to as "Programme" - to the Doctoral School of Social Sciences – hereinafter referred to as "School"; the Board of the Department of Economics and Management shall adopt this regulation aimed at regulating its specific objectives, its internal organization and the Code of Conduct for doctoral students.

Art. 2 – Objectives and scope

1. As an integration to the general objectives of each Doctoral Programme as per Article no. 3 of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes, as agreed with the Department of Economics and Management and the School, the Programme aims at training high-level professional figures able to perform qualified research activities - both basic and applied - in the universities, public authorities and private bodies. More specifically it aims at training professionals able to use their skills in an interdisciplinary, exploiting the various theoretical and research approaches, as well as the interdisciplinary research opportunities within the Department and the Doctoral School.
2. The programme has placed a special emphasis on the methodologies used by behavioural approaches to economics in the fields of decision sciences, organization and human and natural resource management as well as experimental and computable economics. The School of Social Sciences offers a wide range of interdisciplinary training activities organized together with the Doctoral programmes in Sociology and Social Research and Local Development and Global Dynamics.
3. The Programme refers to the School, as per norms outlined in Chapter IV of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes, and adopts the contents of the Regulation, to the end of rationalizing the organization of teaching activities and the coordination of the advanced training activities.

Art. 3 – Language

1. The official language of the Programme is English.

Art. 4 – The Doctoral Programme Committee

1. The Doctoral Programme Committee – hereinafter called the Committee – it being understood the content of Article no. 12 of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes, is made of the following members:
  - a) full professors and associate professors and researchers;
  - b) two representatives of students in an advisory capacity, and only for issues regarding the general progress of the Programme, the training courses/didactic activities and possible organizational problems.
2. New members need to be approved by the Committee by an absolute majority. Their application shall be submitted to the Academic Director of the Doctoral Programme, together with a curriculum vitae, the list of publications highlighting the five considered as the most significant by the candidate and a declaration stating

---

REGULATIONS OF THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

- to be/not to be a member of other Doctoral Programme Committees in other universities. In case of professors and researchers of other universities the authorization of their institution is required.
3. Non-members - professors and researchers – involved in teaching activities and supervising doctoral students, may participate in the Committee, without having the right to vote.
  4. Furthermore, other people may contribute to the activities of the Committee, without having the right to vote and upon invitation of the Director and only for the discussion of specific items on the agenda.
  5. The Doctoral Programme Committee is called by the Doctoral Programme Director, or upon request of at least 1/3 of its members.
  6. The Academic Director sends the notice via e-mail, with a notice of at least one week. In case of urgent matters, a shorter notice shall be given. The notice shall explicitly include all the items on the agenda prepared and sent out by the Programme Director.
  7. The Committee meets at least twice a year for the annual evaluation of the advancing situation of the students' academic performance.
  8. Except for what is mentioned in the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes, when the Committee shall give its decision urgently, the Academic Director may schedule an online meeting. Decision adopted during an online conference shall be ratified in the next meeting of the Committee.
  9. All members are required to participate in the meetings which are valid if the majority of the Committee members is present.
  10. Unjustified absences of a Committee member for more than three consecutive meetings shall lead to the relinquishment of revoke his/her membership, while s/he shall retain his/her role as a tutor or supervisor, if these tasks have already been assigned.
  11. The minutes of the Committee meetings are drafted by the Secretariat of the Doctoral School of Social Sciences, or if they are absent, by the professor with the shortest academic career among the present members.
  12. The Committee shall carry out all tasks as outlined in the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes, which this Regulation integrally refers to.
  13. The Committee shall approve students' paid employment in line with their study plan and the didactic activities of the Departments and in full compliance with the University Regulations for Doctoral programmes. To this end the Committee may delegate the Director.
  14. For all issues which are not expressly addressed in this Regulation, provisions of Article no. 12 of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes shall be applied.

Art. 5 – The Academic Director

1. The Academic Director of the Doctoral Programme Committee shall carry out his/her duties as per Article no. 13 of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes.
2. The Academic Director calls and chairs the Committee meetings; ensures the correct implementation of the issued decisions; circulates the proposals and the decisions of the bodies of the Doctoral Programme.
3. The Academic Director is elected for three years and can be re-elected for an additional further year.
4. The Academic Director is a full member of the Board of Directors of the Doctoral School of Social Sciences.

---

REGULATIONS OF THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Art. 6 – Tutors and supervisors

1. At the beginning of the first year, each PhD student is assigned a Tutor - appointed by the Doctoral Programme Committee - who shall primarily evaluate the skills of the students in the research activities and support her/him in drafting her/his research project.
2. By the end of the first year, when the research project is approved, the Committee shall appoint a Supervisor and a co-supervisor to monitor the student's thesis and research activities. The Supervisor is not required to be a member of the Committee. The Supervisor shall inform the Committee of the progress in the student's study and research activities.
3. The Supervisor and co-supervisor shall ensure that the student respects the basic rules.
4. The Committee may replace a Supervisor who does not respect the duties as per paragraphs 2 and 3 above.

Art. 7 – Institutional training activities

1. The Doctoral Programme lasts four years.
2. The Programme is organized in training activities, submitted at the beginning of each academic year in the Study Programme. This includes mandatory courses, end-course exams and elective activities.

Art. 8 – Study Programme

1. The Study Programme is approved annually by the Doctoral Programme Committee. The study Programme shall be published on the website of the Doctoral School.
2. The study Programme is drafted annually and it includes:
  - a) list and duration of the courses which shall be activated including mandatory courses, end course exams and elective activities;
  - b) possible admission requirements to individual courses;
  - c) provisions concerning training, propaedeutic and/or additional activities; d) exams and any further test;
  - e) features concerning the courses and relevant attendance criteria regarding study periods abroad; f) recognition of ECTS credits obtained in host Italian or international universities, institutions and research bodies (including summer schools);
  - g) admission criteria to the second, third and fourth year of the Doctoral programme.

Art. 9 – Admission

1. Admission to the Doctoral Programme is based on
  - a satisfactory completion of an initial assessment process;
    - a) the research proposal;
    - b) the curriculum studiorum;
    - c) language skills of candidates – in English;
    - d) two reference letters (not mandatory);

---

REGULATIONS OF THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

- e) any further documents proving the research skills of candidates, as outlined in the Call for selection.
- an interview restricted to those candidates whose project and profile have been considered interesting and compatible with the skills and activities of the School. If required by the candidate, the interview may be held online or by video conference, as detailed in the University Regulations for the doctoral programmes,
2. Successful candidates will be admitted to the doctoral programme on the basis of a general merit-based shortlist, approved by the Selection Committee. Art. 10 – Admission to the second, third and fourth year and to the final exam
1. Admission criteria to the second, third and fourth year are outlined in the Study Programme.
2. Such criteria shall include:
- a) in order to be admitted to the second year, students shall be required to:
- Have obtained a positive evaluation from their tutor;
  - Have attended and passed the courses as specified in the Study Programme.
- b) to be admitted to the third year, students are required to:
- Have obtained a positive evaluation from their supervisor;
  - Have attended the training activities as specified in the Study Programme;
  - Have submitted and presented their research proposal;
  - Have submitted and presented their first “research paper”
- c) to be admitted to the fourth year, students are required to:
- Have obtained a positive evaluation from their supervisor and from the Doctoral programme Committee on the progress of their thesis
  - Have presented their research progress
- d) in order to be admitted to the final exam students are required to:
- Have obtained a positive evaluation by the supervisor and possible external evaluators;
  - Have submitted and presented the second “research paper”.

Art. 11 – Rights and duties of PhD students

1. Rights and duties of PhD students are established by Article no. 25 of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes. Furthermore, at the beginning of the four-year study period, students shall be required to carefully read the Code of Honour of the School of Social Sciences (Annex A) which forms an integral part of these Regulations, and to respects the provisions therein contained.
2. PhD students shall further respect the procedures published on the website of the Programme, regarding training activities, as outlined in the Study Programme, as well as the communication which shall be transmitted in writing by the Director, with reasonable notice.

---

REGULATIONS OF THE DOCTORAL PROGRAMME IN ECONOMICS AND MANAGEMENT

Art. 12 – Award of the degree of PhD

1. The Committee of the Doctoral Programme or upon proxy, the Executive Committee of the School of Social Sciences, will appoint an Evaluation Committee, for each candidate, for the title conferral, as per Chapter VII of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes. Art. 13 – Amendments to the Regulations of the Doctoral
1. Amendments to the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes and the relevant Annex and approved as per Article no. 8, paragraph 4, of the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes, shall be preliminarily approved by the Committee of the Doctoral Programme and subsequently by the Board of the Department of Economics and Management. Amendments enter into force on the date of their publication on the Department and School websites.

Art. 14 - Reference provisions

1. These Regulations are completed. What has been not expressly decided, is established by the national law and by the University Regulations for Doctoral Programmes.

Annex A: Honour Code